THE WORST TO COME.

Br. Louis, March 23.-No action has as yet been taken by the merchants, with a view of opening negotiations between the Missouri Pacific Company and its employes, but saveral business men state that such a course would be gladly pursued by them if both would agree to abide faithfully by their decision. A member of the Executive Committee said at a late hour last night: "The worst is yet to come. dread it, but there is no help for it. If we without having been recognized as Knights of Labor, it would be a defeat, not only for us, but also for the Labor Unions, the Trades Assemblies and for every labor ganization in the whole country. We feel that the mene must be met, and now. The present contest is between us and the railoads only. We will wait three or four days in the hope that some way toward a settlement may be opened, and then, if the situation remains unchanged for the bet-ler, every freight frain on every road running out of St. Louis and every freight train on every road running out of Chicago will be stopped. We will have a sufficient force of men upon the roads to run the mail but not a wheel of a single freight car shall be formed until the Enights of Labor are recognized.
